

Satellite Radio is the wave of the future. Its the greatest innovation in entertainment since the advent of broadcasting. The Broadcasters (radio and TV) have been "babied", protected and subsidized by the Governemt for too long.

Let the free market place determine the fate of Broadcast and satellite radio. I suspect there is a place for both